

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
JOINT ECONOMIC COMMITTEE

To the Mailing List

N O T I C E

December 15, 1957

The Joint Economic Committee announces the publication of the committee prints and hearings listed below. Because of the limited supply available to the committee, copies of the publications marked with an asterisk can be obtained only through the Superintendent of Documents. University and general libraries have been supplied from the committee's stock.

As in the past, one copy of the hearings will be sent free on written request to libraries, other organizations and persons on our regular mailing list on a first-come, first-served basis as long as they last. More than one copy may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C. The prices for the publications are listed where known.

* Federal Expenditure Policy for Economic Growth and Stability (Papers submitted by panelists appearing before the Subcommittee on Fiscal Policy.)	$3.25
* Policy for Commercial Agriculture: Its Relation to Economic Growth and Stability (Papers submitted by panelists appearing before the Subcommittee on Agricultural Policy.)	2.25
National Economic Accounts Hearings before the Subcommittee on Economic Statistics, October 29-30.	.75
Automation and Recent Trends Hearings before the Subcommittee on Economic Stabilization, November 14-15.	.30
Federal Expenditure Policy Hearings before the Subcommittee on Fiscal Policy, November 18-27.
Policy for Commercial Agriculture Hearings before the Subcommittee on Agricultural Policy, December 16-20.

Reports of the Fiscal Policy Subcommittee and the Agricultural Subcommittee will be sent to all persons on the Joint Economic Committee mailing list when published, since the Committee's supply will be adequate for such distribution.

Please note: All requests should be written, and addressed to:
